IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

SECOND APPEAL NO.365 OF 2006

Mrs.Dhonditai P. Patil ....Appellant
V/s.
Mrs.Shalinitai R.Patil & Ors. ....Respondents

Mr.V.B. Rajure for the Appellant.

Mr.B.R. Patil for Respondent Nos.1 and 2.

CORAM : S.J. VAZIFDAR, J.
DATED : 24TH SEPTEMBER, 2007.

P.C. :

1. The only question that remained was whether the gift deed and the sale deed executed by the Appellant/Plaintiff's mother were genuine or not. It is conceded that the Appellant and the first Respondent's mother had acquired a full interest in the properties left behind by her husband by virtue of the 1956 Act.

2. The question of genuineness of the sale deed and the gift deed are purely questions of fact and raise no question of law.

3. In the circumstances, the Second Appeal is dismissed.
